

THE ANNUAL DAI RICHARD TAYLOR MEMORIAL ADVOCATES AWARD 2020

---

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NOMINEES AND NOMINATORS:

This award will be presented annually on World Alzheimer's Day, September 21, 2020.

No monetary award will be included.

The award is open to DAI members who have been active DAI members for a period of no less than one calendar year.

The award will be given to a person who has accomplished much as defined by the Board of Directors for the betterment of DAI and all people with dementia.

Nominations may be made by the nominee or by a peer in the DAI, and will be accepted from all current DAI members.

All nominations must include one page (or more) detailing why the person you are nominating is deserving of this award; it must outline activities relating to the betterment of the organisation (DAI) and may include other advocacy activities outside of the organisation.

A process of voting by the Board of Directors of DAI will decide on the recipient of this award. All decisions are final.

All nominations will be accompanied by a letter of application to include a description of the applicants history of any work done for the betterment of DAI in their history of membership, and must include a recent photograph (profile).

The award winner accepts that the winners name will become public including written in any publication, announced in any public arena, and all social communication venues, and their photograph may be included in these announcements.
