CHAIR'S REPORT

John Sandblom
Co-Chair of the Board

Janine Whited
Co-Chair of the Board

Overview

The organization maintained its commitment to being led of, by and for people with dementia, while navigating the evolving funding landscape.

Leadership and Governance

The 2025 Board included Co-Chairs, Janine Whited and John Sandblom; Treasurer, Loraine Wyatt; and Hom Shrestha. Board members fluctuated a bit, with the resignation of Deborah Lloyd.

We also said goodbye to our Member Support Officer, Annika Alvarez and we now welcome Clint Scheel to the role of Member Support Officer.

Operations and Activities

DAI continued to prioritize peer-to-peer support groups as the core of its activities and support groups remained the heart of member engagement. Café le Brain continued with fluctuating attendance numbers.

Partnerships and Advocacy

DAI has maintained dialogue with our key partner, Dementia Australia (DA) with productive conversations which led to a new MOU and discussions for new collaboration with DA's Connecting Peers program. In June, we had our first meeting with Connecting Peers Leaders. Information about DAI's peer support groups will be shared by Connecting Peers Leaders for the people with dementia they support and the opportunity to become a cohost.

Funding and Financial Sustainability

2025 was another year marked by continued financial sustainability challenges. With the end of ADI's annual grants and dwindling unrestricted income, DAI still faces a critical need to diversify revenue with discussion for potential fund raising opportunities.

Looking Ahead

As Co-Chairs, we remain hopeful for DAI's future. The organization's strength lies in its authenticity, its members, and its commitment to lived experience. The coming year will demand bold decisions, clear messaging, and strong partnerships to ensure sustainability and continued impact.

Thank you to the board for their dedication throughout 2025. We look forward to supporting the transition of a new board and ensuring the continued success of DAI.

Respectfully submitted,

John Sandblom
